REDEEM THE HOUSE.

Next in importance to the election of a Republican Chief Magistrate will be the election of a Republican majority in the next House of Representatives. The revolutionary efforts of the leading spirits in the present House to obstruct judicious legislation have made them so offensive to the prudent and patriotic people of the country, that the greatest anxiety exists to redeem the popular branch of the Legislative Department of the Government.

To elect Hayes and Wheeler and, at the same time, better their efforts to wisely govern the country, would be the accomplishment of but a part of a "consummation devoutly to be wished." The loyal North must secure the controlling influence to which it is entitled in the House of Representatives, else the coming administration of Hayes will be thwarted in every possible way, and that harmony in the working of the governmental machinery, so essential to the prosperity of the country, will be wanting.

Every thing connected with politics gives evidence that the Presidential campaign of 1876 will be one of the most exciting that has ever occurred in this country. The Republicans are so well pleased with their platform and candidates, that they go into the fight with a will and, looking back on the events of the last fifteen years, they are encouraged in the contemplation of what they have accomplished. A nation saved from disruption by civil war inaugurated by traitors, and from millions of human beings elevated from bondage to freedom and citizenship are among their achievements.

In proportion to the confidence and enthusiasm manifested in all parts of the land by Republican organizations, the Democracy show a despondency growing out of an unsatisfactory enunciation of principles and selection of candidates. It is a last struggle for restoration of power, and the prospect is so gloomy that they cannot get up that zeal which marked their canvasses in former days. We see nowhere in the Democratic camps the stirring, bustling movements which are the forerunners of victory.

In every State of the Union you could find, prior to the St. Louis Convention, any number of Democratic papers bitterly opposing the nomination of Tilden. In some of these organs he is denounced as a sham reformer, as one whose connection with railroad corporations as attorney has been of a questionable character, as one whose antecedents on the currency question prove him to be anything but a hard-money man, in a word, that in all his life, he has been hypocritical and vacillating in his intercourse with his fellow men.

Then again in the hard-money States, the idea of placing Hendricks in nomination, either for the Presidency or Vice-Presidency, was deprecated by the democracy in unmeasured terms. While the advocates of a greenback currency were favorable to his selection for the first position on the ticket, the friends of Tilden and hard money cried out against it.

The St. Louis Convention with a desire "to gobble up" hard-money men and soft money men, placed the exponent of each financial policy upon the ticket. Now it is patent that in doing so, neither side has been satisfied. The cry of reform has lost its charm, the conviction having taken hold of the public mind that "hypocrisy" which "is the necessary burden of villiany," inspires it. Let our readers bear these facts in mind and in our own State vote for Wren in preference to Ellis, for Congress.

HUMBOLDT FAIR.

The Race Track in Good Condition—Fast Stock at the Grounds—A Good Time Coming.

We visited the race track yesterday afternoon, says the Register, and much to our surprise found the track and grounds put in excellent order for the coming Fair. The building and stalls have been renovated and are ready to be occupied. Much credit is due to the able and energetic President, Alex. Wise, J O Ivory and C. C. Biles for the energy they have displayed in having the grounds of the Society in such excellent condition after the flood of last Spring. We hope the people of Humboldt and vicinity will second the efforts of these gentlemen and the Board of Directors, and make the Fourth Annual Fair a grand success.

We found at the track the following horses which are being trained for the races: Fraud, Stormy, John Funk and Loafer. These are Norfolk colts and owned by John Devine of Stein Mountain.

Humboldt and Target, owned by John Catalow. Humboldt is the celebrated racer which won several purses at San Francisco last Fall.

Wm. Patterson has Jerry and the celebrated Norfolk stallion, Red Dollar.

L L. Rickard has Doc Wilson and fast mate, Nellie Reed.

L H. Morse, of Paradise Valley, has Greeley and Gray Eagle.

V. Craig, of Paradise Valley, has the fast charger, Johnny DeLong

Brooks & Coryell, of Winnemucca, have Larry and the grey mare, Kate.

The above horses are in excellent condition, and exciting times may be expected at the coming Fair. We hear of several fast horses from Reno and Elko will be here as soon as the State Fair is over at Reno. Everything now looks favorable for the best and most successful Fair ever held in Humboldt county. Let everyone lend a helping hand and encourage the efforts of the officers of the Society in their work.

THE STATE FAIR.—The State Fair opens at Reno to-day, says the Gold Hill News of Monday, under auspices which authorize the prediction that it will be in all respects the most successful ever held in Nevada. Some of the finest horses in the State are entered to contest for mastery on the race track, while many have been forwarded from California to compete against our native stock. The purses offered by the managers are large enough to put every steed on his mettle, and some extra fine sport may be confidently expected. The resources of Nevada will be exhibited on a larger scale than ever before and visitors to the grounds will have an opportunity of viewing all Nevada, as it were, in a nut-shell. The exhibition will be open until Saturday night, and during its continuance the Virginia & Truckee Railroad will run excursion trains from Virginia daily, thus affording the citizens of Storey and surrounding counties an opportunity to visit Reno at reasonably reduced prices.

CONSIDERABLE importance is attached to the Pacific States' electoral vote in the coming election. Things are being figured very closely. Both sides claim California, Nevada and Oregon. The Democrats say that they elected the present Governors of each of the three States and can elect the electors; the Republicans claim that "times is changed" and that the only doubtful one of the three is Oregon, they considering California and Nevada as being sure for Hayes and Wheeler.

SEYMOUR has proved obdurate. Another State Convention will meet at Saratoga to day (13th) to see if they can't coax some one else to be the Democratic candidate for Governor of New York.

CURRENT TOPICS.

Garners, "as big as hickory nuts," are found in the Black Hills.

A Leeds, England, genius has invented a machine for blacking boots.

Carson has now 900 voters. The Tribune thinks the list will reach 1100.

General C. C. Batterman and family have gone on a visit to the Eastern States.

It is charged that California wines have been unfairly excluded from the competing list at the Centennial.

A European firm has bought the big Corless engine that runs the machinery at the Centennial Exposition.

Wild wheat from Alaska, brought to Oregon and cultivated, has produced the most satisfactory results.

If the troops in pursuit of the Sioux are as ill clad and poorly fed as the telegraph reports it is an outrage and a shame for which some one should be held responsible.

Sargent and Gorham will soon leave Washington for the Pacific Coast, where they will remain until after the Presidential election is concluded.

The Virginia schools are fearfully overcrowded. One of the primary schools is in the cellar of a building, and is about 15x30 feet in size, with a low ceiling barely eight feet high. In this den, crammed together on little benches like sardines, are seated 192 little boys and girls between the ages of 4 and 12 years.

It is a singular fact that but one or two lives now stand between the Presidency of the United States and an interregnum, which would necessitate a new election. The Vice President is dead; the Speaker of the House is dead; should any accident occur, or unforeseen occurrence take place, the President pro tem of the Senate would be President of the United States.

THE University of Virginia—the educational centre of the South—has just published its catalogue of the officers and the students who participated in its conduct and training during its fifty-second session 1875-76; and the statistics furnished are of a character to afford very great satisfaction to those whom the progress of higher education gratifies, furnishing, as they do, ample proof that in the Mother State the endeavors looking to mental culture are sustained with zeal. The University of Virginia, one of the very first in the country, has won such high repute that students seek it from all parts of the Union, and even from Europe. Its courses include all the more advanced studies usually pursued, the system adopted in following them being one designed to subject students to as little unnecessary loss of time as may be. There is no curriculum, thorough instruction being provided for in independent schools as amply as means will permit. The students last session numbered 333, and of these 159 became either proficients or graduates, and quite a large proportion had titles bestowed upon them, none of which are honorary.

LATE telegrams say that Tilden, the great reformer, was visibly affected when the news of Tweed's capture reached him. The truth of the matter is that Tilden fears, that if Tweed is brought back to New York, some unpleasant stories will be told by the martyred Tweed of certain transactions had between Sammy and the Boss in years gone by. Let us have "reform."

JUDGE LEONARD is in his 42d year; has practiced law successfully for fifteen years; was District Judge of the now Fourth Judicial District from 1870 to 1874; his practice now pays him more than the salary of Supreme Judge. He has one of the best selected and most extensive private law libraries in the State, and is the hardest working lawyer we ever saw.

FALL AND WINTER OPENING.—The latest novelties in Fall and Winter fashions will be opened out at Mrs. Julia J. Prescott's fashionable establishment, next door to the Postoffice. Thursday, Sept. 7th, where all the ladies of Reno and vicinity are invited to call. In addition to the above we are requested to inform the ladies that Mrs. Prescott is prepared to sell her elegant and newly selected stock of millinery at marvelously low prices, and all she asks is for the ladies to call and convince themselves.

THE PAVILION.—It is simply impossible to enumerate all of the articles on exhibition in the Pavilion, and just as impossible to tell the names of the exhibitors and to judge as to their real merits. Yesterday the display was increased a great deal over the day before by the addition of many interesting specimens of natural, agricultural, mechanical and mineral production. Our town merchants have made some very creditable displays, and these form a feature of the exhibition. Last evening a goodly crowd was in attendance and much interest was evinced by them at the display made. As the display now stands it is very creditable, but we hear of many other articles which will be placed into position to-day. The ladies have been particularly active in getting up specimens of needle and other fancy work, and much taste, ability and ingenuity has been evinced by them. The array of toilet sets, beautifully made garments, etc., will well repay a careful examination. A brass band and several organs enliven the scene with cheerful music.

WILL NOT SERVE.—Inasmuch as the name of Mr. Theodore Winters has been mentioned in connection with re-election as a Trustee of the Agricultural Society, that gentleman requests us to announce to the stockholders that under no circumstances will he allow his name to be used in that connection. Mr. Winters finds that such a position encroaches upon his time and business.

ON EXHIBITION.—A hay and grain rake and loader was tested in Evans' field last Monday to the satisfaction of all interested. Next Saturday, at 2 o'clock, the machine will be tested at the Fair grounds. Grangers and all interested in agricultural improvements will do well to witness the test.

SECOND DAY'S RACING.

There was a larger number present at the Grounds yesterday than on the previous day. The weather was fine and the sport good.

The Judges were Fox, Longley and Chamberlain. Timers—Stuart and Hamilton.

FIRST RACE.

The first race was the three minute one. The following horses started in the order in which they are named: John G. Kelly, Kate, Translator, Lady Coummins. In the pools the Lady was the favorite at two to one.

FIRST HEAT.—After four trials the word was given and the fun commenced. At the quarter the Lady was ahead but Kelly lapped her and would have passed her but he made a bad break and was thrown several lengths behind. The Lady kept her position and won the race by half a length, Kelly having pulled down the homestretch at a rapid gate, and came in second, Translator third, Kate fourth. Time 2:43¼.

SECOND HEAT.—After some awful bad scoring the horses got off, Kelly paced the first quarter, and got in the rear. The Lady gained on all, but Kelly caught up a little down the stretch, and came in second. Translator third, Kate fourth. Time 2:41¼.

THIRD HEAT.—This was a very exciting heat. Kelly got in the lead and maintained it to the three-quarter pole, when he broke, and the Lady passed him. Kelly caught quick, and turning down the stretch overtook the Lady. They both kept well together till the distance stake was reached, when the Lady broke and run in a length ahead, but the heat was awarded to Kelly. Time, 2:38. Translator and Kate distanced.

FOURTH HEAT.—Kelly had the pole and started off steadily, and kept the lead to the turn and down the homestretch, when he broke, and the Lady came in winner of the heat and race in 2.37.

SECOND RACE.

Like the first, the second was a trotting race, three in five. Alice, Tom Morgan, May Boy, Sweetbrier. Alice was the favorite in the pools at large odds. May Boy drew the pole, Alice second, Morgan third, Sweetbrier fourth.

FIRST HEAT.—The heat was won easily by Alice, Sweetbrier second, Morgan third and May Boy last Time, 2:34¼.

SECOND HEAT.—For a time in this heat Morgan made it lively for Alice, coming in second, Sweetbrier broke badly twice. May Boy was declared distanced. Time, 2.34¼.

THIRD HEAT.—Alice broke at the start, and Morgan took the lead and kept it till the half mile pole was passed, when Alice passed, and won the heat and race in 2.37½, Morgan second and Sweetbrier third.

The day's sport ended at 6 P. M. and all were well pleased who saw it.

TO-DAY'S RACES.

There will be some fine sport to-day, and we believe there will be a large number of spectators—we hear that many are coming down from Virginia.

The first is a running race for a purse of $800. The entries are Lodi, Rafel, Bradley and Billy Newell Two miles and repeat is the distance to be run. This race will be an exciting one.

The second race is also a run for $800. The entries are Rafel, Ballinette, Vanderbilt, Cousin Vic, Turf Gallery.

The third is a three quarter dash Lady Amanda, XX, Red Oaks, Vanderbilt and Ben Parmer will compete. In the pools last night Red Oaks was even with all the others.

A CALL.—"Red-Handed Mike" called on us yesterday and we had a social talk with him. He claims that he is lighter than Mr. Trevillian, whom he expects to fight shortly, but is confident that he can get away with him. Mr O'Connor says this is his last fight and he will do his best to win it. He will give sparring exhibitions on Thursday and Saturday, and will leave for Virginia on Sunday Mr. Trevillian has a splendid reputation on this coast as a successful P. R. fighter and expresses himself ready to contest the championship with this new rival. If they come to terms we may expect to see a fierce, well-contested fight, as both of the men have interests at stake which they cannot well afford to lose. Considerable money will be staked on the result.

DYER'S HALL.—East Lynne drew a crowded house last night, and Miss Eytinge appeared to much advantage in Lady Isabel. We fail to see wherein any portion of her acting is at fault. Miss Ella Badger is the next general favorite, and the lady may well feel proud of the estimation in which she is held. To night Rose Michel! The theater will be crowded to suffocation. This is Miss Eytinge's greatest character, and one in which she cannot be surpassed. She will receive the full support of the entire company.

THIEVES AROUND.—Last evening while the folks were at the Pavilion some person or persons broke into the residence of J. N. Jaquish, and gave it a general ransacking. Now is the time to be on the watch out petit larceny thieves.

A SPLENDID COLT.—Visitors to the State Fair can see one of the finest, if not the very finest, colt on this coast. He is the property of A. A. Longley of Truckee Meadows. The colt is half Rifleman and half Morgan, He is not yet three years old, but he stands full sixteen hands high, weighs 1,050 pounds and is as perfect in symetry as one of Raphael's pictures of an angel. We are aware that this is not quite an orthodox simile, but we would as soon apologize to the colt as to the angel. He (the colt, not the angel) is a splendid fellow, light bay in color; strong of bone; of splendid carriage; a short back, with but an inch between hip and rib; a long sweeping hind quarter; a deep thoroughbred chest; a hind leg like the driving wheel of a locomotive; a fore leg straight as an arrow; a high, round, firm hoof; a head way up in the air; a nostril full of scorn and power; a broad forehead lit up by a pair of eagle eyes—these are some of the features of this gallant young horse. He begins to show symptoms of being a great trotter, though of course his careful owner dares not practice him much until he has more age. There is not a bit of surplus material in him, and there seems to be nothing lacking. It is good to see such a colt, and he is, besides, a great moral, living lesson to the farmers of this State. It costs no more to raise him than it would a mustang. To-day he is worth as many hundreds of dollars as any ordinary mustang is dollars, and promises in the immediate future to be a little fortune in himself. He is simply the result of intelligent breeding. In him are blent the endurance and courage of the thoroughbred with the strength and stride of a large Morgan dam; and so Young Morgan Chief—all wise laws having been observed in his origin—is a perfect creature. It is good for the eyes to see him; it is a proud thought to a family to feel that they possess such an animal, and beyond all such animals pay. The Enterprise hopes every farmer in the State will look at him, and then resolve to never again permit a mustang colt to be raised on their farms.

A REMARKABLE CASE.—We last week gave brief particulars of the accident which happened to Billie Lyon of Truckee Meadows, through falling off a load of hay upon the tynes of a pitch-fork. The accident happened Thursday. His father yesterday gave the Virginia Enterprise the full particulars. It was a three tyned fork, and the tynes drove through his abdomen just below his stomach. Two tynes passed clear through, coming out of his back; the third struck his spine and broke off, leaving about three inches of it protruding from his abdomen. The first person who reached his side drew this tyne out. He was carried home, his friends expecting every moment that he would expire, but since the accident he has complained very little of pain, the wounds and the shock did not even make him sick, and last evening his physician, Dr. Bergman of Reno, who had just left his patient, informed us that every present symptom furnished strong grounds to hope that the young man would ultimately perfectly recover. It is a most remarkable case, one of those wonderful examples of how sometimes people escape from what would seem to be certain death. A scratch of a pin is enough to kill the strongest man sometimes, and again, others seem to laugh Death's most direct darts to scorn.

THE FAIR.—In the Enterprise of yesterday we find this excellent advice: "For their own sakes, if for no other reason, we hope as many of our citizens as can will attend the Fair now in progress at Reno. Go down and get the fragrance of new-mowed hay—that delicious odor which no art of the perfumer has been able to imitate; get a glimpse of shade trees; get a drink of milk from clover-fed cows; cool your stomachs with genuine buttermilk. Hear the chickens crow, not the cooped-up crow of a bird expecting martyrdom, but a genuine lord of the barn-yard. Look at green fields and running waters. See vines climbing over gabels. See the girls and matrons in the country, and barefooted boys at play. Forget the Bonanza for twelve hours and cease dreaming of the ring of silver bars. Go and enjoy yourselves."

ENTHUSIASTIC.—The Republicans up at Boca are alive and at work in the great political warfare that is now being waged. A large and enthusiastic Republican meeting was held there last Saturday evening. A special train was run from Truckee, bringing people from Truckee, Prosser Creek, Pacific and Camp 18. They were addressed by Judge Marshall of Reno, D. J. Crowley, of Truckee, and others.

ABOUT OUR COUNTY.—The Gazette is publishing the first of a series of articles about our county, prepared for the Reno Board of Trade by John C. Lewis. All should read and save them.

THE Grangers have a grand reunion to-day at 10 o'clock at Odd Fellows' Hall. A fine collation will be spread at 12 M. Wish someone would put hay in our hair so we could partake of that eat.

OPERA HOUSE.—The Opera House troupe continue to give the best of satisfaction. Miss Laura Stevenson and the Allen Sisters are the attraction, yet the others are promising actors. This evening we have "Sketches in India," and a burlesque by the Sisters. The bill is a good one, and will draw a fine house. We trust our citizens will give Mr. McGinley a benefit to night

TO TAXPAYERS.—Official notice is given elsewhere that the assessment roll for the year 1876 is in the hands of the County Clerk awaiting public inspection. Also that the Board of Commissioners will sit as a Board of Equalization at the Clerk's office on Monday, September 18th, beginning at 10 o'clock A. M. All interested will give these matters their attention at once.

WE call attention to the card of H. M. Bernard, carriage manufacturer at Sacramento. Mr. Bernard has a fine display of carriages in the pavilion, and is one of the contestants for the gold medal. He was here last Fair and took four premiums.

PROF HARMON will give entertainments, consisting of legerdemain, comic songs, ventriloquism, etc., every evening this week in his tent near Hagerman's. Admission, fifty cents.

GENERAL BAKE.—A general invitation is extended to girls between 10 and 16 to bake something for exhibition in the Pavilion and for the Committee lunch on Thursday.

DEMOCRATS are invited to attend the meeting of the Central Committee to be held this morning at 10 o'clock at Judge Haydon's office. Business of importance will be presented.

THE co-partnership hitherto existing between Drs. Hogan and Dawson has been dissolved by mutual consent. Thirty days is given in which to settle all accounts.

RAFFLE.—The fine double harness on exhibition in the Pavilion is to be raffled off during the week. It is valued at $275, and the chances are $5 each. Take one.

ON HIS TRAVELS.—State Mineralogist Whitehill is making his annual tour through the mining districts of the State. He was at Winnemucca last Thursday.

PRESS REPRESENTATIVES.—During Fair week Mr. C. A. V. Putnam is here representing the Enterprise and E. J. Parkinson, the Carson Tribune.

CLOTHES CLEANED AND DYED.—Mr. Felix McHugh having established a clothes cleaning and dyeing business at the Pollard House, is now ready to clean all ladies' and gentlemen's clothing, blankets, gloves, all kinds of laces, and merinos so that they will look as well as new. All kinds of dyeing done with neatness and dispatch. An experience of thirteen years in the East guarantees him to ensure satisfaction. Prices reasonable. Orders left at the dye works will be called for and returned. Give him a trial is all he asks. *
